Product Description

STIHL MS 462 Chainsaw - 16"

The MS 462 is the lightest STIHL professional-grade gas-powered chainsaw in its class, providing pros with a power-packed saw in a lightweight design. The MS 462 features the STIHL anti-vibration system to help minimize operator fatigue and a unique bumper design to help users maintain control when bucking and felling trees. From its slim sprocket cover design to its simple, proven, non-electronic carburetor, the MS 462 gives pro users the performance and features they need to get the job done right.
